LITTLE WOMEN AT THE CLEVELAND MUSEUM OF ART
Little Women
Wed, Jan 25, 5:00 pm and 7:45 pm
Admission $4, CMA members $3.

Sixty-one years ago, Katharine Hepburn starred in the first film version of Louisa May Alcott's Little Women. Now, as the most recent remake (with Winona Ryder and Susan Sarandon) is in the theaters (and don't forget the 1949 Liz Taylor vehicle and at least one made-for-TV version), The Cleveland Museum of Art offers audiences George Cukor's lively original, with two shows to accomodate busy schedules.

January 25, 1995, 5:00 and 7:45 pm Little Women (USA, 1933, b&w, 115 min.). George Cukor directs Katharine Hepburn, Joan Bennett, and Paul Lukas in a wonderful telling of Louisa May Alcott's story. $4, CMA members $3
